

Orangeville Public Library

July
2009

What's happening at the Library?

Founders' Fair At The Library

The library is offering these events on Founders' Fair, July 11, 2009 at the Mill Street location.

Book Sale

The Annual Book sale is at the lower level of the Mill Street location from 10:00 am until 4:00 pm.

Think Green - Please bring your own bags and boxes.

Bake Sale

Gigantic Bake Sale

The Friends of the Orangeville Public Library are holding a gigantic bake sale which will be held at Carnegie entrance.

It is from 10:00 in the morning until everything is sold out.

Clifford the Big Red Dog @ Founder's Fair

Clifford will be meeting and greeting children at 11:00 am and 1:00 pm just outside the Broadway door if Mr. Sun is shining and in the Story Room on the top floor if the weather is rainy.

Remember to bring your camera for a photo opportunity with everyone's favourite big red dog. Clifford will be passing out colouring sheets that children may take home.

Please be sure to stop by and say hello or to give Clifford a great big hug!

Children's Programme

The TD Summer Reading programme....

is in full swing starting Thursday, July 2. Please see our children's brochure for more details. Children may sign up anytime for the summer reading incentive club. Join the thousands of children across Canada who participate every year having fun reading their way through the summer. This year's theme is Agent 009. Visit the Story Room on the top floor of the Mill location or follow the mysterious path at the Alder location to find out how you can uncover all the rewards for participating.

The Ready Set Read Programme....

is about to start. Families with children in Grades one, two or three may take advantage of this free programme that will empower you as a parent to help your child master the six basic comprehension skills necessary for successful reading. Send them back to school in September with improved comprehension skills.

This programme will help you to help your child. Guided by a certified Ontario teacher this programme will be offered on Wednesday at Alder from 6:30-7:30 in the TD Canada Trust Room, second floor of the Alder Street Recreation Complex or on Thursday at the Mill Street location from 4:30-5:30. The programme starts July 8, 9 respectively and continue until August 19, 20. Families who read together succeed together.

Thank you to Kevin Williams, a teacher from the Dufferin Peel Catholic District School Board, for volunteering his time for this programme, to the Library Board for providing a free Library card to any child who wishes to participate, and to the Orangeville Optimists who provided funding for the print material for this programme.

 If you have not already registered for this programme through your child's school you may register on the first night of each meeting.

Library News

Orangeville Reads!

One Book One Community Events

Readings at the Farmer's Market:

At the Saturday Farmer's Market during the month of July, 2009 at 11:00am there will be a 40 minute reading by local celebrities in the gazebo.

Grand Finale:

Meet the Author!

This community-wide reading program will end on a BIG note with the author visiting Orangeville on Sunday, September 13, 2:00 pm at the Orangeville Opera House.

Tickets are now available for the Grand Finale.

They are $10.00 each (general seating), and may be purchased at either location of the Orangeville Public Library and at BookLore, while quantities last.

E-mail Notification

E-mail Notification is now available at the library!

If you would like all your correspondence by email-just let us know the next time you are visiting the library.

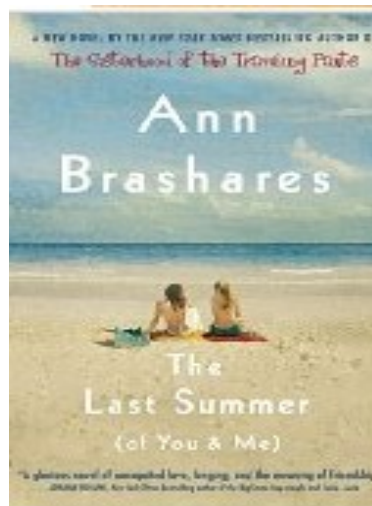

Summer hours at Alder

The hours at Alder location in the summer are as follows:

Monday	4:00 pm - 8:00 pm
Tuesday	10:00 am - 8:00 pm
Wednesday	4:00 pm - 8:00 pm
Thursday	-CLOSED-
Friday	10:00 am - 4:00 pm
Saturday	10:00 am - 4:00 pm
Sunday	-CLOSED-

Book Reviews for July

Last Summer Of You And Me

By: Ann Brashares

From the author of the multimillion-copy, #1 bestselling series The Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants comes a heartbreaking first adult novel.

Ann Brashares's series, The Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants, has made her one of the most successful contemporary authors, shipping more than 8 million copies over the last five years and winning even more millions of passionate fans. Now, like Judy Blume (Summer Sisters) before her, Brashares turns her spectacular gifts to adult readers.

In The Last Summer (of You and Me), Brashares uses her remarkable storytelling, emotional insights, and talent for capturing relationships to weave a rich, textured, mature novel that will resonate as clearly with readers in their forties as in their twenties.

Set on Long Island's Fire Island, The Last Summer (of You and Me) is an enchanting, heartrending page-turner about sisterhood, friendship, love, loss, and growing up. It is the story of a beach community friendship triangle-Riley and Alice, two sisters in their twenties, and Paul, the young man they've grown up with-and what happens one summer when budding love, sexual curiosity, a sudden serious illness, and a deep secret all collide, launching the friends into an adult world from which their summer haven can no longer protect them.

As wise, compelling, and endearing as her Traveling Pants series, and as lyrical, thoughtful, and moving as the best literary women's fiction, this novel is sure to win an entire new generation of adult fans.